

"Forty Thousand Headmen"(S. Winwood - J. Capaldi)

Dm Dsus2 Dm Dsus2 [Dm: slide to Em]

Dm Gm7
Forty thousand headmen couldn't make me change my mind
Am7 Gm7
If I had to take the choice between the deafman and the blind
Am7 Gm7
I know just where my feet should go and that's enough for me
Am7 Gm7 F Dm
I turned around and knocked them down and walked across the sea

Dm Dsus2 Dm Dsus2 [Dm: slide to Em]

Dm Gm7
Hadn't travelled very far when suddenly I saw
Am7 Gm7
Three small ships a sailin' towards a distant shore
Am7 Gm7
So lighting up a cigarette I followed in pursuit
Am7 Gm7 F Dm
And found a secret cave where they obviously stashed their loot

D7 G7
Filling up my pockets even stuffed it up my nose
D7 G7
I must have weighed a hundred tons between my head and toes
D7 G7
I ventured forth before the dawn had time to change it's mind
D7 G7 F Dm
And soaring high above the clouds I found a golden shrine

Dm Gm7
Laying down my treasure before the iron gate
Am7 Gm7
Quickly rang the bell, hoped I hadn't come too late
Am7 Gm7
But someone came along and told me not to waste my time
Am7 Gm7 F Dm
And when I asked him who he was he said "just look behind"

D7 G7
So I turned around and 40,000 headmen bit the dirt
D7 G7
Firing twenty shotguns each and man, it really hurt
D7 G7
But luckily for me they had to stop and then reload
D7 G7 F Dm
And by the time they'd done I was heading down the road

Dm.....Dsus2.....Dm.....Dsus2.....
Heading down the road Forty thousand headmen on my trail
Rolling and rambling.....Rolling and rambling... with forty thousand headmen on my trail
